$2,042,000 WATER SYSTEM PLANNED

A project to cost $2,742,000 to establish a municipally owned water system for Richmond and vicinity is favored in the report submitted by Engineer J. H. Dockweiler and adopted by the directors of the Richmond municipal water district at a meeting today.

Dockweiler has been investigating water conditions in the local district for six months and has filed a comprehensive report on the need of the district and the available supplies. He recommends that water be brought from the Marin water district and piped under the bay at Point San Pablo where the channel is only a mile across.

He also favors the purchase of the distributing system from the Peoples Water company in this city. This would cost about $400,000 and would give a supply of 5,000,000 gallons daily and is capable of being developed up to 12,000,000 gallons daily.

WILSON SUCCEEDS RAY H. CORNELL AS MANAGER OF THEATER

J. R. Wilson who is to succeed Ray H. Cornell as manager of the Richmond theater has been intimately connected with the motion picture business since its infancy. Mr. Wilson first started out with the Edison Projectoscope and some of his experiences with the crude machine are interesting. In 1885 a performance was arranged at Watsonville. The showhouse people were not familiar with the machine and little more familiar with the use of electricity, with which however, at the time, the town was lighted. When the machine was turned on the electric lights all over town went out.

Mr. Wilson assumes his new duties at the Richmond theater on Monday. He is a charter member of the Salt Lake Lodge of Elks.

Mr. Cornell, who has resigned the position was one of the most capable and efficient men that ever has been associated with the playhouse. To use a slang expression he has "been on the job" all of the time and the class of shows and the manner in which they have been presented have evinced the care with which he has exercised his duties.

He has several position in view but has not as yet decided which he will accept.

A UNION OF UNIONS

By J. H. Ryckman

Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz is one of the great men of the United States. In electrical matters he is a wizard. He is consulting engineer of the General Electric company. In sociology and politics he is diligent and profound as a student. He is president of the Council of Schenectady, elected at the last election.

The opinion of Dr. Steinmetz on social, industrial and political matters is a world influence. Recently he gave an interview which is attracting world-wide attention. He is quoted as saying: "For the first time in this country I can see a sound and well-worked out program which labor can use to increase its voltage."

The New York Independent in commenting on this sentiment calls Dr. Steinmetz an interesting genius and says further that the Socialists, the S. L. P. and the I. W. W. and the A. F. of L. have been laboring each other's ideas, programs and methods and dissipating their energies on a rather grand scale.

They are getting tired of dissention and are trying to work out a plan to unite their forces, and the brains of Dr. Steinmetz has been enlisted for the work. If the forces of Labor can be united for a general offensive it will be upon a plan of campaign less radical than that of either the Socialists or Industrial Workers and more progressive than that of the A. F. of L.

It ought to confine itself to big issues of legislation and very big issues of direct action when that is resorted to, and if such agreement is achieved the labor movement will become a far more important factor to reckon with in our political and industrial evolution. The chances are good that when the world is once more at peace the labor movement will take the center of the stage. The Independent is one of the ablest of our conservativ emagazines and its opinion has great weight in the business world.

The Chicago Herald, commenting on Dr. Steinmetz's significant utterances and the prospects of the workers getting together, says the labor forces do not count for as much in this country as in England because of their devision on a program, and we might add, because here they go about begging hat in hand for favors from Wilson or Taft or Roosevelt or Joe Cannon, or Champ Clark or Hiram Johnson instead of getting together like they do in England and sending 50 or 60 or 500 of their own men to Congress. Their ultimate aim is the same but they do not agree as to just how to get there.

Just four days before the A. F. of L. at San Francisco voted by a very narrow margin not to support the plan for an eight-hour day by law the four big railroad brother-hoods outside the A. F. of L., including 350,000 engineers, firemen and brak-men, voted to make a demand for an eight-hour day.

The labor groups all want an 8 hour day but they devide on how to get it.

It is rather hard for an outsider to see why a worker may negotiate for an eight hour day and strike for it and picket for it and boycott for it but he may not vote for it.

One big union on the political field would make them forget these petty differences and concentrate their power in one supreme effort. This supreme issue is the capture all the powers of government to be forever hereafter administered for their own uses, their own purposes and their own happiness.

Here in California the ranks of labor are seething with discontent. They realize that they have been flim-flammed by the Johnson administration. They realize that when one of their number has been convicted in the courts appeal is useless and futile.

The law is so fixed that no matter how much error there may be in the record, how prejudiced the trial judge may be or how unfair the instructions are, or how biased or corrupt the jury is, no revrsal of a verdict of "guilty" can be had if the appellate is of the opinon that substantial justice has been done, and who ever heard of a supreme court that did not think substantian justice has been done when a union man has been convicted of assault and battery in an industrial war, or of murder when he has killed in self-defense a scab or strike-breaker who was taking the bread out of his children's mouths, or when he has broken the head of a Pinkerton in an armed conflictas at Ludlow or Paterson or Lawrence.

The operation of the much vaunted Workmen's compensation act has opened their eyes. The Schmidt trial has opened the eyes of others. Woolwine and Woolwis have disilusioned thousands of the workers in Los Angeles who voted for them and placed them in their high places of power.

The time has never been so ripe for the workers and the radivals and the forward looking folk to get together on the political field and fill the camp of capitalism with confusion. These forces have splen did isues all ready made for them—big enough and broad enough for one campaign and far-reaching enough for any campaign.

If they will take the Walsh report now before congress and go to the country upon it and demand the immediate enactment into law of its recommendations.

Let the forces of labor make the Walsh report the issue at the coming election and they will shake capitalism to its foundations as it has never been shaken, if they do not actually capture the government.

The Walsh report is now before Congress, on the question as to whether or not it shall be printed for general distribution. Organized labor is demanding 200,000 copies. Other radical organizations are asking for as many more. The attention of millions has been called to the issue and is awaiting the outcome. The vote will soon show the line-up.

Let us take advantage of the publicity the Walsh report is getting and will get for months. Its disclosures of the basic causes of industrial unrest are startling. Its rec- can unite.

The exemption from taxation of all improvements on land and the imposition of taxes on ground rent and the taxation of unused land at its full rental value.

2. An inheritance tax that will leave no large accumulations of wealth to pass into the hands of those who had no hand in its production.

3. The recaption by the people from the pirates of privilege of all land, water power and mineral rights acquired by fraud. (These would make an empire alone and secure posterity against poverty forever.) No more timber or mineral lands to be sold.

4. National ownership of the telegraph and telephone as a part of the postal system. (We can go a step further than the Walsh ownerand demand the government ownership of the railrodas too.)

5. An eight-hour work-day and a six-day work week.

6. Enactment of a law similar to the British trade dispute law.

7. Prohibition of private detective agencies and private employment agencies.

8. Municipal home rule, enabling cities to build houses for the workers.

9. Forbidding courts to declare laws unconstitutional.

10. Equal pay for men and women.

11. Overthrowing the decisions of the supreme court hostile to organized labor.

12. The extension of education (and the limitations of armaments.)

13. The initiationat once fo great national construction works, such as post roads, irrigation and reforestation, so that there will not be an idle man anywhere, thus increasing the welfare and efficiency of the entire nation.

How is that for a program for labor? What's wrong with it? Point it out! Let's get together, adopt such a platform, nominate Frank P. Walsh or Charles P. Steinmetz for president, and give the people for once a genuine progressive platform to stand upon and genuine progressives to vote for and see what they will do.

Who but a craven would then care whether it was Roosevelt vs. Wilson or Wilson vs. Roosevelt? Let's get together for our flag and our country, for our children and ourselves.

War Against Bachelor Is On
Women To Exereise Prorogative

By Miss GEESHES OMECHICK

Girls Attention.

Pehaps many have feasted with anticipating eyes the many figures of Walter Washington Imbach, pioneer resident of the great city of Richmond. But that stern and dignified poise of M. Imbach has repelled any outward exhibition of affection. So it is with great pleasure that I present to the young women of Richmond a young man so eligible in this great contest for the elimination of the bachelor.

Walter Washington, like Mr. Wasington, the papa of this great land of ours, is a model of truth. To verify this rather far rreaching statement, I can refer those dubious of its correctness to Mr. Harry Dahiel Chapman, Richmond's benedict City Engineer and Superintendent of streets.

Walter is a draftsman in the office of Mr. Chapman and is said to be very adept in the opening and shutting of doors and windows of the establishment.

To classify Walter as merely hansome would be an insult. As a matter of fact Noah Webster failed dismally to present the necessary adjectives to really describe the contour of Walter. There are few perfect men, but physically, and mentally, financially and several other ways, Walter presents one of the most perfect specimens of the genus man.

For his services under Mr . Chapman, Mr. Imbach receives a very substantian income. He is a great home enthusiast and his favorite song is "Gee But I Wish I had a Goil."

The history of Walter reads like a thrilling novel. His experiecnces on the rolling deep would make entertaining hearing for a nice little wife.

Now who will land this prize? Walter is a member of the Elks, and is also a charter member of the Soup Slingres Union.

I realize that the competition for Walter will be exceedingly keen, tinez for the necessary legal docucommence immediately to seek his hand.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

GRACE: Alas Mr. Frank Gordon, the great Elk pitcher is already a benedict. However, Carlton Stetson, James Stout, Walter Imbath and a large number of others are eligible. Try to select one from this group.

ETHEL: If James Ford the well-known time-keeper at the Santa Fe has already ventured forth on the sea of matrimony it is a great surprise to me. Mr. Wells assures me that Jim has not aplied at Martinez for the necessary lagal document.

ROSE: Our space is limited and it will be sometime before we will be in a position to present the qualifications of Mr . Royal Archibald Rogers. From the numerous inquiries received relative to Royal, it would indicate that Royal is much desired as a prize.

BASEBALL BUGS AWAIT 1916 SEASON

With the beams of the much abused Sol streaming down upon the fair city of Richmond it is only logical that the boys forget their discussion of crops and look seriously toward the rapidly approaching baseball season.

Richmond will present practically the identical lineup this season as won the state championship in 1915.

Manager William Luce declared yesterday that with the exception of a new outfielder to take the place of Daniels no changes would be made in lineup of the club.

According to old dame rumor, Master Frank Gordon, who with Charlie Burns bore the brunt of last season's campaign, will not be amongst those present when the gong rings for the 1916 season. Frank's loss would be a hard blow to the team and it is likely that he will be persuaded to continue his labors for the city. Charlie Burns will be back on the job. Charlie is now getting into shape and should make even a better showing this year than last.

The third man on the string, and who will probably be used to fill the breach in caes Gordon should desert the camp is country Schinkle. Schinkle has a word of speed and a nice assortment of twisters. He was down on thepasturage tossing a few tis week, and with any sort of luck should be an important factor this year.

Ingraham, the dainty captain of the club will officiate at first, Conger at second, Christianson at short Eddie Benn at third, Cutie Cuningham in left, Rod Murphy in center, leaving right fiel dan undetermined proposition.

Luce is looking for some reliable man to handle right. Seceral boys are open for the engagement and on paper it looks almost a cinch for Richmond to reproduce its performances of last year.

The campaign for Shekels, necessary to erect a grandstand will start in real earnest in a few days. The club lost considerable of the long green last year and it is up to the merchants and boosters of the sport to show that they appreciate a winning team by contributing a few duckets for its support.

Vallejo is beginning to show signs of baseball life. The merchants in that city realize that baseball is the best advertising medium in the world and a number of the wide-awake lads are preparing to dig down in their jeans and raise the coin necessary for the purpose of purchasing grounds, and the outfitting of a club. With Vallejo, Richmond, Sacramento, Stockton and a couple of others teams in a state league, fans of the six cities would have A no. 1 baseball dished out to them for their delectation.

Baseball in the so-called 'bushes' is improving every year and this year promises to develope the best grade of the national passtime ever put out.

A laugh-producing comedy acrobatic and ariel novelty will be put on by the Palma Duo, masters of the fun making art when it comes to doing funny acrobatic turns on the stage.

The program is well balanced and sure to be interesting from start to finsh.

LOCAL 130 OF RICHMOND

Just a few lines in this issue of The Daily News to let people know that Richmond Butcher's union is alive and thriving.

The regular meeting was called to order at 8.15 with President Chas. Stolker in the chair. All the officers were present with the exception of Bro. Alfred Sweet, who was out of town. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as read.

There were various communications read and acted upon. There were two applications for membership and same were initiated, Walter Horn and W. F. Willman.

President Charles Stolker called upon second vice president of the California State Federation of B. W. to in stall the newly elected officers After the installation of officers the reception committee consisting of Brothers Goulard, McGrath and Christian asked for permission to set the tablese in the hall for the banquet; immediately a motion was made and seconded that all matters be laid over and the meeting adjourn until the next regular meeting January 25, 1916.

It didn't take long for the committee to set the tables and have everything for the members to enjoy the evening. At the tables were served potato salad, enchiladas ham sandwiches, cheese sandwiches, boston baked pork and beans, frankfurters and sauer kraut, pickles and olives and the old Richmond

President Charles Stolker acted

Preseident Charles Stolker acted as toastmaster for the evening. The first to be called on was the secretary of Local 130, Herman Fredrichs who is now in the butcher business in Richmond. Mr. Frederichs gave quite a lengthy talk on how the local started and what benefit the members gained in starting the union. He stated that before the union was organied in 1912 the members went to work at 5 and 6 a.m. and worked until 6.30 and 7. p.m. every night and 10.30 and 11 p. m. Saturdays and only received from 16 to 18 dollars per until 6 p. m. and Saturdays from week. Now they work from 7 a.m. 7. a.m. until 8 p. m. and the minimum scale is $21 per week.

The next to be caled on was W. Kearney, former member of local 130 and at the present time member of 1220, Oakland, who also gave a lengthy talk on the progress of the local and especially for the past year and wished the local the same success in 1916 that it had in 1915. After that mostly all the members in the hall were called on and gave some sort of a talk on the progress of local no. 1330

Next was a duet led by Mr. Heidorn, which was folowed by Scotch songs by Alex Machey. There were all kinds of stories and jokes told. The leading minstrels were Bros. Goulard Murar and McGrath. The evening throughout was one grand success and the members hope to give a dance and picnic in the near future when they expect to see our neighboring brothers along with the Richmond local.

Washing China and Cut Glass

When you are washing fine china and cut glass, it is a good plan to place a heavy turkish towel in the bottom of the basin. This will lessen the danger of the china and glass being chipped.

How Porterville's jail comes to be sold under the forclosure for $30 awaits explanation, provided the people of that interesting town do not want to remain involved in mystery.

Lincoln Leaders favor Fairbanks. Same old proposition. It will be remembered that when it first broke some four years ago it was the Lincoln-Roosevelt league.
